DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS RESOURCES

SAILS Accommodations
- Student Accessibility and Inclusive Learning Services
- University hub for disability accommodations such as note-taking, exam extensions, transportation services, etc.

DART
- Disability Access and Resources Transportation
  - Provides transportation across campus for those with mobility impairments

CART
- Communication Access and Resources for Transcription
  - Provides language support for those who are hard of hearing such as live transcription or an ASL interpreter

Assistive Technology
- Provides educational support and assistive technology such as special keyboards, braille reader, text zoomers, etc. courtesy of the ASU Library
  - Pickup available at Hayden Library

Disability Career Development
- Resources for career development, such as internships, clubs and organizations, and job fairs catered to students with disabilities
- Professional and personal networking
Special Communication Accommodations
- Provides additional communication services beyond CART
- Specialized services for specific disabilities

Notetaking
- Allows students to take notes for classmates who require special accommodation
- For students with dyslexia, attention deficits, etc.

LIFE - Mentorship for students with disabilities
- Long-term mentorship for students with disabilities provided by SAILS
- Application necessary to register for the program

Scholarships
- Please filter search "disability" for disability-specific scholarships at ASU
- Certain departments have disability specific scholarships too!

Workshops
- Technology training for students and faculty
- Cultural responsiveness and accessibility considerations in "Universal Design"

Lunch and Learn Workshop with SAILS
- Learn more about the SAILS team and navigating their services
- Zoom sessions provide insight on classroom accommodations provided by SAILS

Career Health and Wellness
- ASU collaboration with Starbucks to provide professional workshops for managing finances, mental wellbeing, and navigating college life